Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us as we explore the Italian Riviera on the Ligurian Sea. This beguiling region offers both sun-soaked vistas and scenes of daily life in charming, laid-back seaside towns. Sip red wine, relax in pleasant piazze and revel in the views that have inspired artists and writers for centuries.

Travel by land and sea to villages nestled on the Ligurian coastline. Marvel at the brilliantly-painted towns that seem to spill down the sides of the steep hills and the breathtaking panorama in Cinque Terre National Park. In southern Piedmont, visit an Italian Renaissance castle, and uncover layers of history in medieval Lucca. Come and discover the good life along one of the world’s most beautiful coasted.

This wonderful trip combines the ease, value and camaraderie of group travel with ample time for you to pursue your own interests. Plus, it includes engaging educational lectures that deepen your understanding of the history and culture that surround you. The ever-popular journey fills quickly, so ensure your reservation by signing up today!

An Auburn University host is eligible to travel on this trip if the participation level is met. As you make plans for traveling, I encourage you to consider the trip-consolidation insurance offered through the Auburn Alumni Association. Join us, as well as alumni from other colleges and universities, on this delightful adventure in discovery. For more information on the trip and itineraries, please visit our website at http://www.auburn.ahitravel.com/travel.

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. The story begins with our commitment to delivering authentic experiences with local people. Your journey to the Italian Riviera this summer will take you on a voyage through history, architecture, and culture, which has enchanted artists, writers, and travelers for centuries.

The story of Cinque Terre involves more than just a visit to Monterosso, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore. It’s a journey through the hillsides of the Cinque Terre Natural Park, a region that has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its natural beauty and cultural significance.

Day 1 | Pisa | Lucca

To explore the natural beauty of the Cinque Terre region, you’ll begin your journey in Pisa, the birthplace of the famous leaning tower. From Pisa, you’ll travel to Lucca, a city known for its stunning Romanesque architecture, including the magnificent Duomo di San Frediano and the Basilica of San Frediano. After a guided tour, enjoy free time to explore the city’s narrow streets and charming piazzas.

Day 2 | Cinque Terre National Park

This day is home to legendary quarries where marble is extracted, providing opportunities for insightful conversations about the origins of the region.

Day 3 | Rapallo | Portofino | Santa Margherita Ligure

After a guided tour, enjoy free time to explore the town of Santa Margherita Ligure. Here, you’ll have the opportunity to enjoy a walk along the seafront and admire the beautiful scenery. You’ll also have the chance to visit the charming town of Portofino, one of the prettiest towns on the Ligurian coastline. Travel through rolling hills to encounter the beautiful town of Sestri Levante, which is home to legendary quarries where marble is extracted, providing opportunities for insightful conversations about the origins of the region.

Day 4 | Paestum | Salerno | Amalfi Coast

Enjoy a full day at leisure to explore the beautiful town of Sestri Levante, which is home to legendary quarries where marble is extracted, providing opportunities for insightful conversations about the origins of the region.

Day 5 | Pompeii | Sorrento

Travel through the beautiful town of Paestum, known for its stunning Roman temples. From Paestum, travel to Sorrento, a town known for its picturesque cliffs and stunning views of the Tyrrhenian Sea.

Day 6 | Pompeii | Sorrento | Capri

Enjoy a full day at leisure to explore the beautiful town of Sorrento, known for its stunning views of the Tyrrhenian Sea and its proximity to the famous island of Capri.

Day 7 | Portovenere | Cinque Terre

To end your journey, you’ll travel to Portovenere, a charming town known for its stunning harbor and beautiful coastline. From Portovenere, you’ll travel to the beautiful town of Cinque Terre, which is home to legendary quarries where marble is extracted, providing opportunities for insightful conversations about the origins of the region.

Day 1 | Pisa | Lucca

If you’re interested in exploring more of Italy, you can extend your tour to Florence, Tuscany, or Rome, including visits to the Uffizi Gallery, the Colosseum, and the Vatican Museums. Please call or visit our website to review the itinerary for full details about our activity levels. More leisurely alternatives may be available.

We want you to have a comfortable and enjoyable experience. That’s why we have rated all of our excursions with activity levels. (Please see the next page for full activity level rating descriptions.)

For its prime location and spectacular seascape views, it is ideally situated for exploring the Boliven Riviera and the surrounding region. The beautiful beaches and charming towns offer a unique glimpse into the local lifestyle and culture.

Thank you for choosing AHI Travel for your journey to the Italian Riviera. We hope you have a wonderful experience and look forward to welcoming you back in the future.

Dear Auburn Alumni and Friends,

Join us for an exploration of the Italian Riviera. This beguiling region offers both soul-stirring vistas and scenes of daily life in charming, laid-back seaside towns. Sip red wine, relax in pleasant plazas and rev in the views that have inspired artists and writers for centuries.

Travel by land and sea to villages nestled on the Ligurian coastline. Marvel at the brillantly-painted towns that seem to spill down the sides of the steep hills and the breathtaking panoramas in Cinque Terre National Park. In southern Piedmont, visit an Italian Renaissance castle, and uncover layers of history in medieval Luca. Come and discover the good life along one of the world's most beautiful coastlines!

This wonderful trip combines the ease, value and camaraderie of group travel with ample time for you to pursue your own interests. Plus, it includes engaging educational lectures that deepen your understanding of the history and culture that surround you.

The ever-popular journey kicks off quickly, so ensure your reservation by sending your request today!

An Auburn University host is eligible to travel on this trip if the participation level is 80%. As you make plans for traveling, I encourage you to consider the trip-consolidated insurance offered through the Auburn Alumni Association. Join us, as well as alumni from other colleges and universities, on this delightful adventure in discovery. For more information on the trip and tickets, please visit our website at http://www.auburn.edu/travel.
