The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. Travel is an ever-changing story that involves the spirit, the eye, the ear, and the heart. It is the ability to imagine a conversation with a person who once lived in another time and another place, but who was still human. Travel is about celebrating the unique, the diverse, and the extraordinary, and about sharing those experiences with others. This is the story of travel, and it involves more than a ticket and a passport.

The other important characters in this story are the guides and the storyteller. The guides are the experts who know the destination, who can take you to the places you want to see, and who can help you understand the history, culture, and lifestyle of the people who live there. The storyteller is the person who shares the story, who can help you appreciate the beauty and the depth of the experience.

The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized experience, the stories you hear, the memories you create, and the places you discover. Your personal travel story begins with your imagination, your curiosity, and your willingness to explore.

The story of travel is about more than just the physical journey. It is about the emotional journey, the spiritual journey, and the intellectual journey. Travel is about discovering new places, meeting new people, and learning new things. It is about experiencing different cultures, different histories, and different ways of life.

The story of travel is about more than just the journey. It is about the impact of the journey on your life. Travel can change you, it can inspire you, and it can challenge you. It can help you grow as a person, and it can help you understand the world in a new way.

Travel in the footsteps of our forefathers, and feel the energy of Berlin, Prague, Dresden, and Prague's Old Town. Take a walk through the Saxon Alps and marvel at the craggy, unusually shaped formations created by water erosion millions of years ago. Gaze across the Elbe's ever-changing scenery as the ship cruises toward Litomerice. See the craftsmanship of Prague's Historic Jewish Quarter. Experience the old-world grandeur of Dresden's beloved Frauenkirche and the Zwinger, the Royal Castle and the Queen's House.

This afternoon, check in to the Hilton Berlin. Spend the afternoon at leisure. Drive along Kurfürstendamm, lined with exclusive boutiques, Art | Architecture | Culture | Cuisine | History. Gain the impact of the city's divided past. A Tale of Two Cities: East Berlin City Tour. After breakfast, transfer to the airport for the return flight to your gateway city.
