aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Small Ship
Five-Star Le Bougainville

September 10 to 18, 2020
Dear Alumni & Friends:

We invite you to travel with us, as well as alumni from other colleges and universities, to the unspoiled coastlines and idyllic islands of the azure Adriatic, Aegean and Ionian Seas. These dynamic crossroads of the Roman, Byzantine and Venetian civilizations and their distinctive cultures have flourished here for more than 3000 years. Our comprehensive, custom-designed itinerary reveals an extraordinary cultural legacy spanning five countries—Greece, Albania, Croatia, Montenegro and Italy—and transiting the Corinth Canal, a momentous passage possible only by small ship.

Begin your journey in Athens—the cradle of Western civilization—where you will board the exclusively chartered, Five-Star small ship Le Bougainville, which features just 92 ocean-view Suites and Staterooms. Cross the Isthmus of Corinth, passing through the narrow canal between soaring, 300-foot-tall limestone walls; cruise along the Adriatic coast of the stunning region of Dalmatia; and conclude in Venice, originally known as La Serenissima, “the most serenely beautiful city.”

Call at ancient walled cities, medieval villages, sublime archaeological sites, picture-perfect islands and delightful landscapes, and cruise into smaller, seldom-visited ports inaccessible to larger vessels. Visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including sacred Delphi—the center of the classical Greek world—the elegant island capital of Corfu Town, the exquisite Greco-Roman site of Butrint, the seventh-century walled city of Dubrovnik, the dramatic, fjord-like Bay of Kotor and historic Split with its fourth-century Palace of Diocletian.

Discover the many hidden gems along the Dalmatian coast as a panorama of daily life unfolds before you and merges with the legacies of ancient cultures. Enjoy our private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and the insightful COASTAL LIFE® FORUM featuring personal perspectives from local Montenegrin residents in Kotor.

Join us on this exceptional, carefully planned cruise—a captivating, enriching experience and an excellent value. Book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available. Delphi
Delphi, considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C., is now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to sacred Mt. Parnassus to consult the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo. Tour the magnificent Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts, including the life-size, fifth-century B.C. bronze statue of the Charioteer of Delphi. Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy a walking tour of the UNESCO-inscribed Old Town. See the 17th-century Town Hall—once a Venetian theater—and the Regency-style Palace of St. Michael and St. George.

Sarandë, Albania, for Butrint
A short drive to 16th-century Lëkurësi Castle provides stunning panoramas of Sarandë. Cultural Enrichment: Hailed by UNESCO as “a microcosm of Mediterranean history,” Butrint’s exceptional ruins trace 3000 years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. Public baths, a gymnasium and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity.

Dubrovnik, Croatia
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” UNESCO-designated Dubrovnik is one of Europe’s most beautifully preserved walled cities, with historic treasures and stone houses that seem suspended in time. Discover the authentic treasures of Kotor’s Old Town, framed by the winding Bay of Kotor and limestone massifs.
Cultural Enrichments: See Onofrio's Fountains, a beloved city landmark, and visit the 15th-century Rector's Palace, the fascinating Maritime Museum and the Romanesque Franciscan Monastery's gorgeous cloister and historic pharmacy. By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional a cappella folk music recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Kotor, Montenegro
The breathtaking, fjord-like Bay of Kotor winds deep into the mountains of Montenegro. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its rich cultural history, revealed in mosaic-tiled Roman villas, ornate Catholic churches, Venetian Baroque palaces, flamboyantly frescoed Orthodox monasteries and impressive medieval fortifications.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit St. Tryphon Cathedral, consecrated in 1166 and a masterpiece of Romanesque architecture with elegant Corinthian columns and remains of Byzantine-style frescoes. Meet and engage with local residents who will discuss daily life along the Adriatic during the specially arranged Coastal Life® Forum.

Korčula, Croatia
Within the medieval walls of Korčula, a city defined by eight centuries of Venetian rule, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork. See masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark.

Hvar
Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar, a key center of the Croatian Renaissance. Tour the Old Town's remarkably preserved landmarks within its 13th-century walls, including St. Stephen's Cathedral and its four-story bell tower.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit the museum in the 350-year-old Benedictine Convent, which features exhibits of unique, handcrafted lace fashioned by nuns from agave and aloe thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Split

Cultural Enrichments: Visit the Palace of Diocletian, including Diocletian's mausoleum, converted to the Cathedral of St. Domnius (A.D. 305) and regarded as the world's oldest Catholic cathedral, and the Temple of Jupiter, one of the best-preserved Roman temples, which now houses the cathedral's baptistery. Croatia's most accomplished sculptor, Ivan Mestrovic, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Mestrovic Gallery.
